Outstanding performance of

 The Roberta M. Stephen Memorial Scholarship is awarded at the National Association of Teachers of Singing (NATS) National Student Auditions (NSAs) for an outstanding performance of a Canadian art song in the college-age classical categories. Named for the founder of the first Canadian NATS chapter, Roberta M. Stephen was part of a musical family from Southern Alberta. She held degrees from the University of North Texas and University of Calgary. Stephen's students were consistent award winners at the local, provincial, and national levels and many former students teach and perform professionally. To learn more about this award, please visit the NATS website and consider programming works by Canadian Composers in the future.

 1st place in the HS American Negro Spiritual Category presented by the North Carolina Chapter.

 Dorothy Sawatski Prize for first place in the Lower Classical Treble Voice category is given by NATS member and former member of the NATS Board of Directors, Nita Herrick-Colpitts, in honor of her teacher Dorothy Sawatski. Professor Sawatski was a charter member of NATS Southern Region and served as its Region Governor for several years. She was also the national Vice President for Workshops, National Convention Chair, and Program Chair. Professor Sawatski taught for over 50 years and was the founder of the University of Arkansas, Little Rock programs in voice, opera, and musical theatre.

 1st place in the 1st-3rd year American Negro Spiritual Category is presented in Honor of Sister Thea Bowman by Dan Johnson-Wilmot. Dan is here to share a little about Sister Thea Bowman.

 American Spiritual Ensemble Prize for 1st place in the Upper/Advanced American Negro Spiritual Category, presented by the American Spiritual Ensemble (Dr. Everett McCorvey, Director).
