

Reading or Website or Article Summaries

During the semester, we will read a number of chapters in our textbook, content from websites, and articles from various scholarly journals. In the daily plan of the semester, after various readings are assigned, you will see on a subsequent day that “reading summaries due” appears. Use the rubric below to write up a short summary of the key points contained in each reading.

Here is the rubric. Each article summary should be about one paragraph long:

Title of article:

Author:

2-3 Key Ideas in this article (think like an annotated bibliography):

Do you agree with what the author says? If not, why not?
