App Store

Backing is a new mobile app with an extensive library of high quality accompaniment tracks for musical theatre, classical, and pop singers.

Backing adds about 100 new tracks every month.
Don't see what you need?
Backing allows for song requests so that each singer can build the library they need.

Backing believes that only the human hand can support a singer's heart felt singing. No midi sounds here! All for the unbeatable price of $5.99 a month
